TO: Sun City Center Community Association

As a new homeowner in Sun City Center, I found the use of your Contractor Listing most helpful during my recent search for an electrician. After making inquiries & obtaining estimates from several electricians, we decided to contract the services of Tyler Yeager Electric. The owner, Tyler Yeager, was very professional and provided us with a timely & competitive bid. As an experienced & licensed electrician, Mr. Yeager provided us with a quality job while ensuring it was performed to code. We are delighted with the results and recommend Tyler Yeager Electric to other Sun City Center residents.
